The Elephant Prince by Flavia Weedn - Goodreads The classic Hindu “Brahma Vaivarta Purana” text provides the base story for Novesky’s retelling. Here Ganesh’s head is accidentally turned to ash and the god Vishnu-with the aid of a wise old elephant who chooses to sacrifice himself-restores the child to his mother Parvati. Her mother’s love is evident throughout the story.

Elephant Prince: The Story of Ganesh by Amy Novesky ... Absolutely beautifully illustrated and gentler story of how Ganesha obtained his elephant head. Contrary to the better know story where Shiva cuts off the head of Ganesha while he is guarding his mother's bath, this story sees the loss of the baby's head as an accident, when Lord Shani looks at the baby at Parvati's insistence and because of the Lord's power the baby's head disintegrates.
