LAVINIA | Ursula K. Le Guin | First Edition

This last work of the late Ursula K. Leguin evokes the late Bronze Age Italy that was the setting for the last six books of the Aeneid. As someone who studied Latin and read it in the original, this was highly satisfying. The viewpoint of Lavinia, Latin wife of the Trojan hero, offers profound insights into human society.

Highly acclaimed author Ursula K. Le Guin lends a resonant voice to a pivotal yet often overlooked character of Virgil's The Aeneid. Born into peace and freedom, Lavinia is stunned to learn that she will be the cause of a great war - or so the prophecies and omens claim. Her fate is sealed, however, when she meets a man from Troy.
